We, the Beta Club, wish to dedicate the 1961 NUHOSCA to you, Mrs. May Taylor Allen, a fine teacher and a true friend. You are an inspiration to all because of your patience, understanding, and faithful service. You are worthy of our highest esteem and warmest affection.

Mrs. May Taylor Allen

In addition to her regular classroom teaching and senior activities, Mrs. Allen plans all high school trips and serves as guidance counselor, giving students personal assistance in many areas. Here, she is having a conference with one of the sophomore girls.

The School Committee, although it is not seen by the students in every-day school life, is the guiding force by which our school functions. It has, at all times, the welfare of the school and student body in mind. Committee members give of their time unselfishly to serve the school in order that the needs of students may be met. The service they render helps to make our school one of which we can be proud.

Class Prophecy

When I returned to New Hope today after being away ten years, I met Rebecca Whisnant Jackson and her two lovely children. She continued her chattering ways and told me that Linwood Anderson was the manager of the new Colonial Store in Elroy. Grace Thompson Raynor is celebrating her 10th Wedding Anniversary and is the proud mother of triplets. Frank and Joyce Owens Butler are increasing the population of Winston-Salem. Ann Price Tyndall has just returned to her home after winning the Mrs. America title in Miami, Florida. Rachel Overman Swinson is now teaching school at Brogden.

As I was going back toward my old home, I saw Phillip Sutton, Durwood Peele, Sammy Parks and Buren Ellis busily planting their spring crops. Phillip told me that he and Dot have two sets of twins. Frank Anderson is the new agriculture teacher at New Hope High School. I continued on my way and met John Thomas in his '71 Pontiac followed by Gene Boyette in his new '71 Impala.

I stopped at Patsy Gray Ginn's house and she told me that Betty Lou Ginn Wiggins, Evelyn Gurley Ezzell and Joann Edwards Gray each have four children. Sandra Uzzell Creech has stopped nursing at Wayne Memorial Hospital to care for her ever increasing family. Kenneth is still working in Goldsboro. Everette Lancaster is now Physics Professor at William and Mary College in Williamsburg, Virginia. Gloria Uzzell is still lending her boy friends to Uncle Sam. Ann Smith Gray and her family have moved to Goldsboro.

Going back toward Adamsville, I saw Ace Robbins relaxing at Lakeview. He told me that Diana King, William Closson, Judy Mullen and Kenneth Aldridge have been transferred from Seymour-Johnson Field to Alaska. Sheran Allen returned to Japan recently when her husband was transferred to Itazuke Air Force Base. Doug and Jessie Daniels Herring are raising ponies and little Herrings. Gail Herring and Rosemary Keel are now working at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D.C. Linda Lancaster is a private secretary in California, while Ruby Jean Goodson Fail is working in an office in Goldsboro. Linda Grady is working in New York City as secretary to one of the foremost lawyers of that city, Mr. Kenneth Royal. Rebecca Parks Smith and her husband, William, now operate the Play-More Recreation Center in Kansas City. Charles Johnson, George Smith and David Earl Williams are still "Catting Around." Walter Whitfield is working hard trying to feed Delores and all the little Whitfields. Judy Smith Parrott and Sandra Smith Roberts have one child each in school at New Hope. Donald Edwards has opened a new drive-in-theater in Adamsville. Nancy Corman is working at Warner Brothers Studio in Hollywood, California as a makeup artist. Fleeta Smith has moved to Seven Springs where she operates her own beauty salon.

When I stopped at the old favorite, the Drive-N-Grill, I saw Gene and Linda Daly. While we were talking they told me that Terry Vanderburg is working in Goldsboro and Kendall Teachey is working with Barnum-Bailey's Circus as a lion tamer. Marie Gurganus, Geraldine Lancaster and Pat Wells are working in Kinston. Joe Roberts is now assistant basketball coach at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

As I returned to my home, I was filled with pleasure over learning the progress of the '61 New Hope High School Senior Class.

INITIATION

The night of Nov. 3, 1960 was a night to remember in the lives of newly initiated members into the F.H.A. Club as evidenced by these pictures.

F.F.A.

A national organization, the F.F.A. is composed of students studying farming. Taking tours of fellow members' farms, making and selling mail box posts, selling magazines and pecan trees, laying concrete walkways at school, building and repairing farm equipment obtain for members a more complete understanding of agricultural work. The boys become efficient in proper parliamentary procedure. Various contests entered include seed and tool identification, livestock judging and tobacco grading. A New Hope Chapter team placed second in Wayne County and third in the Eastern Division this year in the tobacco grading contest.

OFFICERS

President, Everette Lancaster; Vice-President, George Smith; Secretary, Charles Johnson; Treasurer, Edward Lee Daniels; Reporter, Frank Anderson; Sentinel, Toby Roberts; Chapter Sweetheart, Linda Faye Smith; Adviser, Mr. D. Wayne Kneeshaw.

Driver Education training was added to the curriculum this year. Students learn to drive safely under the instruction of Mr. R. H. Mason. The students spend the first 30 hours in the classroom after which they are divided into groups of three for actual driving one hour per day. Each student receives six hours driving time. Upon successful completion of the training they are awarded certificates.

Bus drivers are responsible for 950 lives.

There is no greater task placed in the hands of students than that of transporting boys and girls to and from school. The thirteen bus drivers of New Hope drive an average of 294 miles daily, transporting 950 students. Theirs is a great trust and responsibility. Their faithfulness and care is an excellent example for all who follow them.

Mr. Thomas M. Benton, Administrative Assistant to Wayne County Supt. R. S. Proctor, discusses with bus drivers the added safety features of the new, wider, two-light stop sign.

Stevie, the elevator boy, turns sweet on Hazel, the maid.

Garret dressed as a woman loses his skirt. As Vic. enters he stands breathless and frozen at Garret's predicament. Vic: "Garry! Oh, Garry! What the dickens are you doing . . . playing a game?"

Thinking that Stevie is the culprit when Marshall Ward's trousers are taken Mrs. Rhodes says, "That's all I wanted to know! So you're the one who's been taking things, are you, Stevie?"

Angela smiles for the first time when she realizes what a fool she has been and how much Eve really means to her.

Senior Farewell

As we pass slowly out of these doors that have seen so many come and go, all too quickly we hear the doors of the years past, quietly shutting behind us; and we go forth eagerly to open the doors to the future and whatever it may bring.

For when one door is shut---another opens.

Dearest Kennedy,

I hardly know how to start but I'll try by saying that I shall never forget the wonderful (with some bad ones interspersed) times that we've shared. Some of the outstanding ones are: March 5, 1961; Williamsburg, the trips to White Lake & the beach especially the time with Joe & Anne; Aug. 20, 1961; the fair; our Washington trip; and many, many more that I won't name.

Kennedy, now that we're finishing school, most people that we know, but think that our ways might part, but I know that they won't & we don't want them to and believe me, I don't want them to. Kennedy, you are the sweetest and most wonderful persons on this earth (even when you are mad) a think so. For the next three [illegible] but that won't change things for me and I hope [illegible] for you. Ray is the best thing for us, even though you might not think so. Even though we'll have to be apart, during those three years back of us can lay the foundation for the future that I hope we'll share.

Kennedy, [illegible] privilege to [illegible] you [illegible] and trust you [illegible] you [illegible] love you and won't because you [illegible]
